WHO WE ARE & HOW TO GET INVOLVED

The NMHEC is a partnership of academic, civic, private and community organizations that aim to address health disparities and inequities in Nevada by building capacity, informing policy, and conducting research.

The mission of the NMHEC is to promote the health and well-being of diverse communities by pursuing research, capacity building, and advocacy that recognizes the unique cultural and linguistic differences of Nevadans.

THERE ARE SEVERAL WAYS TO GET INVOLVED WITH THE COALITION.

Apply to become an Associate or Allied Partner

to receive organizational benefits and get directly involved in NMHEC work.

Sign up to receive community
announcements

by subscribing to the NMHEC email list so you can stay updated on the latest community news and upcoming events.

Attend quarterly meetings

to stay informed on NMHEC projects and progress.

Join our advisory board

to engage in and guide discussions about NMHEC projects.

Donate

to the coalition to support the continuation of our work.
